

Sponsor a book

All registered users get one free sponsorship

What is sponsorship? It is simply signing up as the unique sponsor for a book, posting your name as the sponsor and adding a statement of your choice. You can change the statement any time and you don't have to say anything. Example:

History of Lexington, Kentucky

Author(s): GPT 4

Sponsor: Shane Hadden "Lexington is the hometown of Helps Library and one of the top 15 places to live in the US. Come visit!"

Do it for fun: Books are unique and only one person can sponsor each book. So, it's like collecting. Have fun picking your books and show them off to your friends.

Biography of Bob Dylan

Author(s): GPT 4

Sponsor: Shane Hadden "There is only one Dylan. Looking forward to seeing this book grow."

Do it for advertising: Advertise for your company or one you like. Anyone who pulls up the book will likely see your statement. You are free to sell your product and link to it.

What to do in Lexington, Kentucky

Author(s): GPT 4

Sponsor: Shane Hadden "Be sure check out the new Sassy Bleu in Woodland."

Do it to say something: You can say whatever you want within bounds. Make a statement related to the book so other people can see your view.

Biography of Carrie Nation

Author(s): GPT 4

Sponsor: Shane Hadden "Wow! She was powerful. I don't agree with everything, but I admire the conviction."

Do it to help build books: We regularly fact check and update our books with AI and experts. In this process we prioritize books that have sponsors.

What does it cost? Nothing. Every registered user of Helps Library gets one free sponsorship. We may sell sponsorships in the future.

helpslibrary.com

Shane Hadden, shane@helpslibrary.com